Gators devour Eagles 17-7 to win 1995 Class 2A state football championship

By Eddie Campbell
Last Saturday afternoon the Glades Day Gators fulfilled a dream that started two years ago by defeating Tallahassee North Florida Christian 17-7 for the class 2A state championship at Daytona Beach Municipal Stadium. It was on the same field two years ago that the Gators were defeated by Graceville. "It was the worst feeling of my life losing two years ago," said Senior Brad Seider of the Graceville defeat. "We (the Senior class) knew we were going to get back to state, and that it would probably be our senior year when we did," Seider added.

The first quarter of the game was a feeling out period for both teams. The Eagles seemed to find a weakness in the Gator secondary with the passing of Eagle's quarterback Mike Ury. The first quarter ended with the Eagles at the Gator 15 yard line. The Eagles finished off that drive on a nine yard touchdown pass which put the Eagles up 7-0. That would be the only scoring of the first half. The Gators hadn't found a way to beat the Eagle's defense. Apparently during halftime the Gators found a way. Lee Sweet ran the off-tackle for 30 yards to the Eagles two yard line on the Gators first second-half drive. Then Seider replaced Sweet at tailback and ran the ball off-tackle for a two yard touchdown. Then a moment of jubilation turned into a moment of apprehension for the Gators when the point after attempt went wide left leaving the score 7-6 Eagles. However the Gators had found something that worked for them on offense. "At halftime I said that we needed to run the ball in the second half in order to win. We found out that we had success running the ball off-tackle. If we were going to run the ball off-tackle, why not put two over them," were Head Coach Mandy Perez's comments after the game on the Gators use of an unbalanced offensive line in the second half. The Gators again went off-tackle with Seider on a fourth and one conversion late in the third quarter. This conversion led to a Farris Shatara 19 yard touchdown run with :10 left in the third quarter. Quarterback Jackie Garrett then dove towards the goal line with nothing more than the ball to convert a two point attempt, making the score 14-7 Gators. The Eagles recovered a Gator fumble on the Gator 34 yard line, but the Gator defense shut down the Eagle's offense keeping the momentum on the Gator side of the field. The defensive play of the game came when Senior Michael Hollen sacked Ury on an Eagle's fourth down. It was the only Gator sack recorded during the game. The Gators put away the game when Julian Rodriguez avenged his missed extra point with a 29 yard field goal with :33 left in the game. The fourth quarter ended. The celebration began. And for all the players on that team that lost the state game two years ago, a dream was fulfilled this Saturday, Dec. 9. "It's due to the morale of this team that we came back in the second half to win," was Coach Perez's comment on the win.

Pioneer grower and businesswoman Ruth Wedgworth dies

Ruth Springer Wedgworth, 92, a Glades area pioneer, and the 1987 recipient of the Woman of the Year award for the Florida Agriculture Commission, passed away on Saturday, Dec. 9, at Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach. With her family, she owned Wedgworth Farms Inc., Wedgworth Produce Inc. and Wedgworth Inc. Through the years they were involved in sugar cane production, cattle, celery, a produce pre-cooking plant and a fertilizer blending plant.

agricultural operation and by 1938 they had a 320 acre vegetable farm, a packing plant and a fertilizer plant.

The couple were reaping the benefits of those six years of struggle and hard work when a tragedy struck. Herman Wedgworth was fatally injured in an accident in the ice plant they were building, leaving a wife and three children.

Mrs. Wedgworth continued to run the business and caring for the three children, Helen, George and Barbara Ann. She overcame great financial difficulties and the many vagaries of weather to become a successful farmer and business person.

However, her work didn't stop at the farm. She served Belle Glade by being active in education, health care and her church. She raised her three children and brought them into the family business.

Her colleagues in agriculture often honored her for her accomplishments. She was the first woman elected president of the Florida Horticultural Society; received the Award of Merit from Gamma Sigma Delta fraternity at the University of Florida in 1947; helped organize the Florida Celery Exchange and served as chairman in 1950; was a charter member of the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida, of which her son, George, was the first and continues to be the president;

Established water rates for Canal Point set at Pahokee Commission meeting, Nov. 28

By Buffle Chapman
Staff Writer
Procrastinators beware. Paying your water bill after the due date could now cost you an extra $30. The Pahokee City Commission passed an ordinance at the Nov. 28 Commission meeting to charge basic fees for services regarding nonpayments on Canal Point area residents' water bills. If Canal Point residents decide not to pay their water bill on time, the City Commission has voted to charge a fee of $30 that will be charged to each account for turn off/on because of nonpayment effective Nov. 15. A late charge of $15 will be charged to all accounts not paid in full by the due date on the monthly bill and a fee of $15 will be charged for each turn off and $15 for each turn on requested by a customer. The charges per month for water service to each customer shall be as follows:
• First 3,000 gallons - $17.55
• All over 3,000 gallons, per 1,000 gallons - $5.85

• Minimum bill - $17.55
Before any service is provided to an applicant there must be paid to the City a service deposit, also known as a meter deposit, as follows:
• Single-family residence, each $100.
• All others up to two-inch service $135.
• Over two-inch service - Per contract
• Existing customers who do not have a deposit with the City will be required to pay the deposit of $100 to the City at a rate of $10 per month until paid.
The City Commission feels that these rates are reasonable and are based on the city's rates along with fees for operation and maintenance," said Pahokee City Manager Ken Schenck.
"Anyone with over 1,500 gallons of water per month should see a decrease based on the rates charged. The city won't continue to lose money like we have in the past since we have taken over from private ownership," Schenck added.

Betty Williams and Betsy Burden, both of Lake Clark Shores, enjoy the Tricity League's annual barbecue. Over 500 people attended this year's event.

Singing for the seniors...The Children of Lutheran Ministries PEPPY Head Start put on a program for seniors at the local Senior Citizen Center last week. Healing Cures for arthritis are hocus-pocus

By Paula Swaford, RN.

One of my early adulthood heroes always stood "larger-than-life" in everything he did. He was tough and tenacious. His fierce pride and renown patriotism was emulated by young and old alike. He fought for many causes in his life, including the lung cancer that ultimately took his life. For the last few years he suffered with arthritis and took to wearing a copper bracelet all the time...even while filming his later movies. You may remember him too - John Wayne.

According to an article in FDA-Consumer Magazine, May 1994, one "can sit in an abandoned radium mine, hang a Vryllium tube on your lapel, bury yourself up to the neck in horse manure, swallow Dr. Fendy's Formula X, or take a dose of 'Chuiifong Touku-Wan,' but you will not be able to cure your arthritis."

Unfortunately, many intelligent consumers are being conned and duped every year into believing in "miracle" cures. It is a distressing fact of life that although there are drugs to relieve the pain and reduce the inflammation of arthritis, there are no cures for most of the more than 100 types of this painful and sometimes crippling disease.

Arthritis apparently has been around as long as man. Bones of the Java Ape Man and Egyptian mummies show signs of arthritic damage. Arthritis literally means inflammation of a joint. As it is a chronic condition, once you develop it, it often stays with you the rest of your life, bringing pain and sometimes disability.

Not only are there few cures, but scientists don't know for sure what causes most types of the disease. The one fact that does stand out is that the peddling of the "miracle" cures is big business, with more than a billion dollars spent annually by consumers.

Arthritis has a way of coming and going unpredictable, which is known as spontaneous remission. The pain and swelling can simply disappear for days, weeks, months, or even years.

People who experience such a remission are easily convinced that whatever they were taking or doing brought relief. The Food and Drug Administration has long been concerned about fraudulent drugs and devices and has, over the years, taken legal action to get many of them off the market.

One of the earliest gadgets to make its appearance in this country was "Perkins Tractors," two pointed rods about three inches long, one gold-colored, the other silver. A number of conditions, especially gout, pleurisy, rheumatism, violent insanity, an inflammatory tumor, and yellow fever, resulted from a surcharge of an electric fluid in the body, inventor Elisha Perkins claimed. This electricity could be released through drawing the tractors over the affected area. Perkins and his tractors were the biggest thing going... in 1798!

Chairs and mattresses that vibrate, and the Slim-Twist exerciser were promoted to cure heart and vascular problems, relieve arthritis, asthma, and diabetes!

The supposed therapeutic effects from diet modification have not gone unnoticed by the quacks either. Everything from cod liver oil, alfalfa, pokeberries, kelp, to plain seawater have been touted as cure-alls.

The drug combinations are much more dangerous. One such therapy, called Tri-Wendy Treatment, consisted of diluted hydrochloric and nitric acids, cream of tartar, sulfur, phenolphthalein (a laxative), alcohol (44 percent), Jamaica dogwood, thiamine hydrochloride, and cherry flavoring. It took seven years for the FDA to get it taken off the market.

People with arthritis should remain wary of products that offer "special" or "secret" formulas that promise quick or easy cures.

There are no "genies" in the bottles and the products can do much more harm than good. Sorry Mr. Wayne, all the copper bracelet did was turn your arm green!

Until next time...stay informed and stay healthy.

Hurricane season ended Nov. 30

By Mike Lyons

Thursday, November 30, 1995 was probably just another busy day for you. Work had to be done, the kids needed to be picked up from school, meals had to be made. Just an ordinary day.

Yet, Thursday, November 30, 1995 was a very special day for the employees at the National Hurricane Center. That day marked the official end of the hurricane season, a six month period that saw 19 named storms, 11 hurricanes and five major hurricanes. It was the second busiest year on record. Only the summer of 1933 had 1933 had more storms.

The season started with a bang in June when Allison became the earliest hurricane in history. It reached its peak in September when four storms, Humberto, Iris, Karen and Luis, all wandered the Atlantic Ocean at the same time. And, it rose to its full fury in October when Opal destroyed part of Florida's panhandle.

November 30, 1995 was a day a lot of people were looking forward to. Goodbye hurricane season and good riddance.

Just about everyone is happy the hurricane season is over, everyone except Richard Horodner. From December to May, Richard is a tax specialist in Miami. But, from June until November, hurricane season, Richard is a hurricane hunter.

Richard chases and catches hurricanes. When a tropical system is about to make landfall in the United States, chances are Richard is waiting for it with camera in hand. "It's either 41 or 42 storms that I've chased since 1965,"

Mr. Horodner told me.

Most of us want to run away from these powerful storms yet Richard runs after them, hoping to photograph nature's most powerful production. "I want to go straight to the eye," Richard said. "I want pictures of the hurricane at its peak."

This obsession with tropical storms and hurricanes began at an early age. Richard was 13 when Hurricane Donna struck Miami. "It scared me, but I understood what was happening," Richard said. "I could only imagine what a storm was like and now I was experiencing it."

His next experience and his first chase came five years later. Richard and the other students at Florida State University pursued Hurricane Betsy, from Florida to Mississippi. "We really didn't catch that one," Richard said, but it didn't matter. He was hooked. Since then he's tailed hurricanes from Texas to the Carolinas.

Along the way he started a business selling his pictures to people who want to see what it's like inside a hurricane. This fall he's offering a documentary on Hurricane Opal. Besides his photographs, the video includes radar and satellite loops of the storm, meteorological data and damage surveys of the areas devastated by Opal.

"Being inside a hurricane is exhilarating," Richard said. "I don't like danger but I like being on the edge."

November 30, 1995 was a day of celebration for many people but not for Richard Horodner. On that day Richard returned to his job as a tax specialist immersing himself in IRS forms for the next six months.

But unlike other tax specialists, April 15 is not the most important day of the year for Richard. He's looking forward to June 1 - the start of another hurricane season.

Canal Point Baptist Church dedicates Chrismson Tree

Members of the church family of Canal Point Baptist Church dedicated their very first Chrismson Tree during special services on Sunday, Dec. 3.

The nearly 200 Chrismsons that were placed on the tree were handmade by members of the church family. During the service over 100 of the church families placed Chrismsons on the tree. As they came forward they explained their Chrismson and its meaning. The tree had been previously decorated with all but the Chrismsons to be placed that night. After the tree was decorated, a prayer of dedication was given during which time the lights in the sanctuary were dimmed. Following the prayer, the tree lights were turned on as the Chrismson Tree officially became a part of the Christmas tradition at Canal Point Baptist.

The idea of a Chrismson Tree in Canal Point Baptist Church was first thought of by Margie Branch. During the summer the church family was asked if they would like to have a Chrismson Tree and they were very enthusiastic about the idea, said Rev. James Bennett. In September, the day group of the Women's Missionary Union began making Chrismsons. At the time, Ruth Gilbert, WMU director for the church, asked that the evening group join in this effort. By the first of November more than enough Chrismsons had been made to cover a 12-foot tree. The tree now stands in the choir loft of the church during this Christmas season.

Chrismsons are a relatively new innovation that does much to remind us of the beauty and real significance of the Christmas season, said Rev. Bennett. What are they? Chrismsons are a contemporary adaptation of a centuries old form of Christian communication. They are symbols of Christ and His message that have been with us for over 1900 years," said Rev. Bennett.

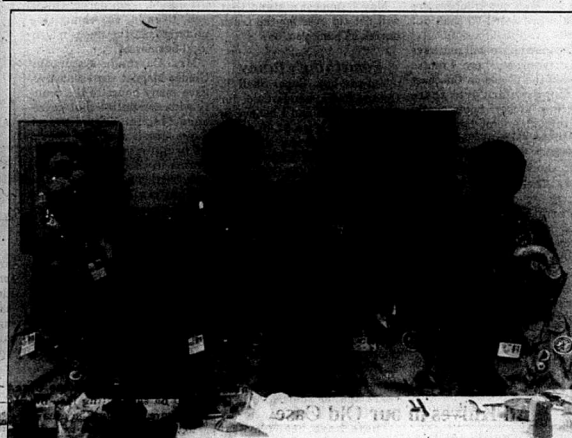

"They are a welcome reminder that even in the midst of modern commercialism, there is still deeper meaning to this sacred season," he added.

In 1957, Mrs. Frances Spencer of the Lutheran Church of the Ascension, in Danville, Virginia, volunteered to decorate the sanctuary tree. Even as attractive as a ordinary decorated Christmas tree can be, she did not feel it was appropriate for the sanctuary. Since it was Christ's birthday they were celebrating, why not decorate the tree with something meaningful about Him? Her research led her to an old drawing called a "Chrismson."

The word Chrismson is of ancient origin: "Christ" from Christ, and "mon" from monogram. Chrismsons are composed of symbols and monograms that have been associated throughout the centuries with Christ and His teachings. "Only three colors are involved in a Chrismson tree. The green of the evergreen tree represents eternal life, while the white lights remind us that Christ is the Light of the World," said Rev. Bennett. The Chrismsons themselves are only white and gold, white for purity and perfection and gold to symbolize His glory and majesty and kingship over us all," he explained.

Chrismsons are not denominational. "They belong to all Christians as they proclaim the name, the life, and the saving acts of Jesus the Christ. Though existing for almost 400 years, Chrismson trees are new to Baptist churches. Canal Point Baptist Church is the first Baptist church in the Lake Okeechobee region to have a Chrismson tree," he noted.

Write that letter

I just wanted to let the citizens of the Glades know that we are in danger of losing our Florida Highway Patrol station. The plan is to close our station and move the troopers to the coast.

The Florida Highway Patrol in Lantana and also Tallahassee feel that our troopers are needed more on I-95 than our area.

This means we will not have the coverage out here. I am so tired of the people on the coast thinking we are over there wearing "kicker" boots, walking through swamp land, fighting off the gator. We are important too!

Do you realize how bad it's going to be when our roads are not being patrolled? Just remember, it may be your loved one (child, husband, wife, sister, brother or parent) that may be killed by the drunk driver that FHP could have taken off the road (if we were important enough).

It's time for us to come together and save our station. Call the governor, write him and demand that our station stay open. The citizens of the Glades have been picked on and forgotten long enough. Do something, be heard. Get involved before it's too late. Once it's gone, it's gone forever.

Stop the sweeping

"It seems you can't go into a restaurant around Belle Glade to eat without someone starting to sweep vigorously, stirring up dust. Dust is falling on your food, falling on the salad bar.

Why can't the sweeping be done when no one is in there and the food is put away and the salad bar is covered? All that dust, dirt and germs that walks in the door is spread around.

We work hard, pay good money to eat in a clean and healthy place. Sweeping should not be done while people are eating and covers are not on the food!"

Doggone those dogs

"Lyons Park. You might have kids turning the trash barrels over at Lyons Park but, I sat and watched a large brown dog wearing a green collar burn the trash barrel over on Wednesday, Dec. 6, around 3 p.m. - so some of the blame goes to the owners of this particular dog.

May I suggest a stand that will not tip over for the trash barrels? Thank you."

Something's funny

You can buy Super Shell 93 Octane in Ft. Lauderdale for $1.18 a gallon and I believe in Belle Glade it's a $1.40 a gallon. What's wrong with the stations in Belle Glade? Is this price gouging in the Glades? I'm sure the freight should be about two cents a gallon from Ft. Lauderdale to Belle Glade. Somebody needs to check in on the gas prices here in the Glades and see what's going on."

Still standing

"Hi. I'm an inquirer. I'd like to know why the house on Lake Shore Drive in Canal Point is still standing? The houses were condemned five or six years ago, or something like that."

There have been several wrecks on that curve. Why is the house still standing? The people were supposed to be out. Thank you."

Truancy is a problem

"I'm just wondering why the children in this area don't go to school? You know there used to be rules, regulations and systems to be followed, but now, there is nothing.

The kids go to school if they want to, if they don't want to go they don't. They don't care, the parents don't care. Who cares? The school system is really sorry here now. Something really needs to be done."

Look for the magnet survey Jan.

"The Glades Area Magnet School Advisory Committee

prepared a parent survey to address your magnet theme preferences. This survey was to be printed in this edition of The Sun. Due to holiday ads and other news, Mrs. Brenda Bunting was unable to provide space for the survey. She has generously given us permission to run the information in the Jan. 4, 1996 paper. Thank you, Brenda, our committee understands the needs of our local businesses.

Mrs. Cartheda Mann, our Glades Magnet representative, gave many hours to the county-wide committee that developed Magnet School procedures. She is available to help us in pursuing Magnet Programs in the Glades. Thank you, Cartheda.

What is a Magnet? A "magnet" is a special course of study which, by its very nature, attracts students. Students who qualify for magnet programs or magnet schools are allowed to attend the magnet even if they do not live in the zone which normally attends the school.

The purpose of Magnets: Magnet programs have been implemented as a way to provide enhanced curricular opportunities to Palm Beach County students.

Will my child's needs be met? One of the hallmarks of a magnet is that students feel strongly that they receive more individual attention. The teachers and students share a common mission and purpose. That unity translates into excitement in the learning process.

The holiday season is an appropriate time for the Area 4 Support Team and our principals to say thank you to our communities and parents for your help and support during the 1995 school year. You will be asked to contribute even more as we work toward improved achievement levels for all children. Each school has developed an action plan involving parents that addresses specific needs. We wish all of our families the peace and joy of the season."

"DO YOU PROMISE TO LOVE, HONOR AND COMMUNICATE."

Avoid credit card shopping binges

As the holiday shopping season approaches, a University of Florida home economist has issued a financial storm warning: consider your purchases carefully and use credit cards wisely to avoid getting in over your head when the bills are due.

"It's so easy to just say 'charge it' and get carried away with the spirit of the gift-giving season," said Mary Harrison, consumer education specialist with the UF's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences. "All those little purchases add up, and we all know there's no free lunch. Over indulging on credit card debt is one thing, getting out from under that debt is another, especially if you're paying 18 percent interest - or more - on the balance."

She said credit card companies are making it easier for consumers to fall behind on their credit card payments by extending borrowing limits. And, she added, part of the blame for record levels of consumer debt must go to credit card issuers who are willing to give cards to almost anyone, even those with a poor credit history or bankruptcy.

"New variable-interest rate credit cards which promise a low rate for the first six months, can surprise consumers with a big rate increase after the introductory period," she said.

Another factor in the huge rise in U.S. consumer credit debt, now more than $1 trillion, is that more merchants now accept credit cards and consumers are shifting more purchases to their cards. For example, credit card use at some supermarkets has increased by 50 percent in the last six months, she said. Overall, consumers owe lenders about a third of their disposable income, not including mortgage and car payments.

"Some people like credit cards because they're more convenient than cash. Others use credit cards for almost every type of purchase because they receive airline frequent flier miles or gift points for each charge. In their search for rewards, they charge everything from dental bills to down payments on new cars," she explained.

Harrison said the average credit card holder carries a balance of $3,900 on two or more cards and only a third pay their bills in full each month. Most make only the minimum monthly payment which means it will take years to pay off the principal. Some are having trouble making any payment at all. Others are filing for bankruptcy.

"If you owe $2,500 on a credit card with an 18 percent interest rate and make only the minimum payment each month, it will take almost 20 years to pay off the balance," Harrison said. "Your interest payments over the years will total more than $4,000."

Harrison offered the following tips not just for the holiday season, but for good year-round financial management:

- Pay your monthly bills on time and don't go over your credit limit.
- Pay off as much of your monthly balance as possible.
- Stop using your credit cards and start using debit cards that deduct money from your checking account.
- Combine all your credit card purchases onto one card with the lowest interest rate. If you cannot transfer balances to one card, pay off the card with the highest interest rate first.
- Don't be afraid or embarrassed to seek professional financial counseling if you need it.

For more information on managing credit wisely, see the following publications available free from the University of Florida Cooperative Extension office in your county: Choosing A Credit Card, Credit Terms, Deciding How to Pay, Establishing Credit, Know Your Legal Rights, and A New Way to Pay: Debit Cards.

Sonja Lutz chosen to attend the Florida League of Teachers training Glades Central High School English teacher Sonja Lutz has been selected to attend the Florida League of Teachers training session in January.

Mrs. Lutz was chosen to attend the all expense paid training which will be held in Tallahassee Jan. 25-26. She was notified by Judith Harris, program administrator for the Florida League of Teachers, which is part of the Florida Department of Education. Ma Harris said "This group of outstanding teachers is dedicated to training and supporting other teachers in the implementation of Florida's school reform effort."

She said the training, as well as the skills and training Mrs. Lutz will bring to the League, will prepare her to facilitate and support inservice training in critical teaching strategies in her specific subject area.

"You will also be prepared to assist in planning, delivery and follow-up activities of the Florida Academies for Excellence in Teaching," she told Mrs. Lutz.

The training will focus on how the League can assist schools which have been designated as critically low performing schools.

Mrs. Lutz and her husband, Kenneth, have three children. They live in Belle Glade and Mrs. Lutz has taught school at Glades Central Community High School for many years. She has been the recipient of numerous awards, including Palm Beach County's Teacher of the Year and the prestigious Dwyer Award for Secondary Education.

Safe Cooking

(NAPS) - Don't spoil your holiday meals by inviting that unwanted guest - salmonella.

Salmonella poisoning can cause an upset stomach, fever and headache and be very serious in children, the ill or the elderly. An estimated 81 million Americans are affected each year, but being careful can keep danger away from your holiday table.

• Wash your hands thoroughly before and after touching raw food. If raw meats or poultry, touch cooking utensils, cutting boards or preparation areas, wash and disinfect before using them again.

• Water and detergent don't kill bacteria. Sponges and dishcloths may even spread germs. Use an anti-bacterial cleaner, such as Lysol® Antibacterial Kitchen Cleaner, the only cleaner that's EPA-registered to kill both Salmonella, and E. coli, another common source of food-borne illness.

• Cook meat thoroughly. Turkey should have an internal temperature of at least 185° F. Never thaw frozen meat at room temperature. Give turkey lots of time to defrost in the refrigerator.

Girl Scouts experience thrill of the Caribbean

Girl Scouts experienced the thrill of a real Caribbean adventure when the Historical Museum brought their on-the-road program to Belle Glade. Fifty-four girls attended this half day event Nov. 11 at the First Baptist Church.

The multi-cultural program team from the museum brought an enormous floor map of the Caribbean Islands, and Central and South America. The girls learned where each of these countries and continents are, what products come from the islands, and what types of foods people who live in this area might eat.

The girls also got a chance to make a craft relating to the Caribbean.

While in the craft room, the girls created a story, props and scenery, and presented a skit for their parents at the end of the program. It was a very educational program, but the girls just thought it was great fun.

Palm Glades Girl Scout Council coordinated this event for area Girl Scouts.

The program was provided free to registered girls, thanks to sponsorship by Lake Hardware and Farm Supply, Royal's Furniture, Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida, and the First Baptist Church.

Palm Glades Girl Scout Council is grateful to these sponsors for providing a wonderful event.

If you are interested in becoming involved in Girl Scouting, please call Rosanne Watson at 1-800-432-1453.

FACTS FROM THE FIELD

Fertilizing for the 1996 Crop

Soil testing and plant tissue analysis remain the best diagnostic tool in helping growers identify soil needs and optimum crop nutrient rates.

Start by asking what your soil needs. Consider its texture and organic matter levels. Are they limiting nutrient availability or holding capacity? Is compaction a problem? What is the soil pH?

Next, determine crop needs. Nutrient requirements may vary significantly among different crops and hybrids. Don't focus on N, P and K alone, however, to produce a profitable crop. Secondary and micronutrients also play key roles.

Relatively large amounts of secondary nutrients are required. Calcium helps form calcium pectate, which strengthens plant cell walls and promotes root and leaf development. Deficiencies can result in poor growth and tissue rot.

Magnesium and sulfur also promote plant growth. Low magnesium yellows the plant leaves, and low sulfur reduces levels of essential amino acids, slowing protein production and plant growth.

These deficiencies usually occur in soils that are sandy, low in organic matter and exposed to high rainfall or intensive irrigation.

Although needed only in small amounts, micronutrients are also critical to plant growth. Copper, iron, zinc, manganese and molybdenum help convert sugars to starches. In addition, iron assists in chlorophyll production, zinc promotes protein synthesis, and molybdenum assists nitrogen fixation. Boron affects sugar translocation and water retention.

Micronutrient deficiencies are usually simple to cure. A foliar or soil treatment with manganese sulfate or chelate will cure low manganese. A small amount of copper sulfate corrects copper deficiency. And liming can almost always treat low molybdenum.

If you need help determining correct applications, call me at the number listed below. We can also get you started on a soil testing program.

Although financial considerations may influence your goal, your 1996 fertility program should cater to the crop's needs from planting to harvest.

South Bay has new business; Suzie Q's

Misty Fender

Suzie Q's Drive Thru located at 135 North U.S. Highway 27, South Bay, has opened their doors for business with convenient hours of 5:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

"A lot of people don't realize it's a drive thru. We have a lot of people who park outside and walk in," said operator Misty Fender. "People are now starting to realize the convenience of the drive thru's low prices and fast, friendly service," Ms. Fender added.

Suzie Q's is family-owned and family-run. The owners are Glenn and Sue Berry. The store is operated by Sue Berry and Misty Fender.

Suzie Q's offers a sub shop that is open from 5:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. and if caught on the right mornings, offers fresh pastries.

"We are contributing to the growth of the community by opening another business in the City of South Bay," said Ms. Fender.

The store location was founded by Gary Caplin six years ago and is unique because you don't have to get out, we do everything for you, conveniently right off of the highway.

If you would like to order a sub from their Sub Shop, call 996-0681.

REFUSE TO LOSE!

That was the theme of Glades Day School's varsity football team and it paid off as they won the state 2A championship last Saturday, Dec. 9, in Daytona. Over 1,000 Gator fans made the trip up north to show their support. Congratulations guys!

This is the fourth state title the Gators have won and the first in Class 2A. They also won the 1A championship in '80, '82, and '86.

While some of the football players can rest on their laurels, others are getting into their basketball gear as the boys season starts up this Thursday, Dec. 14. The junior high boys and girls have games at LeBelle Middle at 5 p.m. and 5 p.m., while the JV and varsity boys will play at home against Ft. Lauderdale
